THIEVES IN LEAGUE WITH SERVANTS, SAY POLICE.

The Rummy robbery is the first big theft of jewelry reported from a fashionable New England watering place this summer, but in the three seasons past several mysterious cases of a similar nature have been reported to the police of Newport, Narragansett Pier and Bar Harbor. There were two or three big robberies at Newport last summer which were completely successful from the standpoint of the thieves, as none of the stolen property was recovered nor was any clue found to the burglars.

It has long been the theory of detectives that a gang of expert jewel thieves has among its members several trained household servants who make it their business to secure employment in the homes of the rich and then arise themselves with the hiding places of the jewels of the women of the house. Ordinarily the extremely wealthy are careless about their valuables and it is not a difficult matter for a set of resourceful thieves to make several big hauls in the course of a season at a summer resort.

Investigators from Narragansett Pier state that an organ grinder who spent considerable time last Saturday afternoon in the vicinity of the Rummy cottage has disappeared. He is being sought, together with all other persons who were seen in the vicinity of the Rummy home Saturday evening or Sunday.

WALL STREET.

Market Closing—Shortly after 3 o'clock Erie led preferred stock a sharp up to 44 1/4, a rise of 1-4 point over close of yesterday; the common stock sold at 21 1/4. This movement helped to strengthen the general list, which rallied from 1-4 to 1 point. The trading was on a small scale, with prices in most of the list confined to fractional changes.

Last prices were mixed, and with the exception of the few stocks noted, most issues closed from 1-4 to 3-4 down from yesterday's closing prices. Total sales 230,700 shares.

Stocks opened with very little demand. Some issues were only fractionally off, while a few showed advances. Leading sold ex-dividend 2 percent, at 100 1/2, but yielded a point in the first half hour. Canadian Pacific lost 1 1/4, Amalgamated Copper 1/2, Union Pacific 1/2 and United States Steel 1/2. Trading was very quiet and after the first half hour prices hardened and remained steady, with slight changes upward.

In the second hour Chesapeake & Ohio was in demand, advancing to 85 1/2, while a number of the important issues yielded to pressure and sold fractionally lower. The Erie stocks showed strength, as what was termed road buying, and did not follow the tendency of the general list to sell off; the common at 20 1/2 and the first preferred at 44 1/4. The Erie common was selling at 21 1/4, and the first preferred at 44 1/4. The Erie common was selling at 21 1/4, and the first preferred at 44 1/4.

In the early part of the afternoon there was no change of importance took place.

CALL FOR CONGRESS INQUIRY ON MEXICO; AMERICANS FREED

Joint Action by Senate and House in Passing on Situation, Is Proposed.

HUERTA HEEDS WILSON.

Quickly Yields to Demand in Case of Men Held Prisoners—Mexican Peace Plan.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Investigation of conditions of Mexico by a joint Congressional committee was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Stephens of Texas. Five Senators and five Representatives would examine all diplomatic correspondence and other documents relating to the situation.

"The committee shall consider," said the resolution, "the question of our relations with Mexico growing out of the present disturbed conditions of that country. The committee shall report with as little delay as possible the true conditions in Mexico, the protection given Americans and American interests, the truth regarding the inhumanities and atrocities which come to the knowledge of this body through official sources and any other facts relating to this matter. The committee will, with as little delay as possible, recommend what action should be taken by Congress."

Representative Stephens said that he had not consulted Secretary Bryan or President Wilson about his resolution.

Senator Sheppard of Texas today introduced a resolution asking the foreign relations committee to advise the Senate if the belligerents in Mexico should be formally recognized by the United States.

HUERTA ACTS QUICKLY IN RELEASING AMERICANS.

Ambassador Wilson will appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee tomorrow to give his views of conditions in Mexico.

The Ambassador resumed his conference today with Secretary Bryan on the Mexican situation. Mr. Wilson had expected to quit Washington today, but remained at the request of the Secretary to continue his extended report of conditions in the Southern republic.

Charles Bissel and Bernard McDonald, the two mine managers, held by Mexican Federalists under sentence of death at Chihuahua, have been ordered released by the Huerta Government. Charge Alvaro of the Embassy here has informed Secretary Bryan today.

It was said Mr. Bryan expressed gratification at the prompt action the Huerta Government had given to American representations in the cases as well as that of Dixon, the Immigration Inspector of Puerto Rico.

President Wilson had no announcement to make today concerning the policy the United States would pursue toward Mexico, but there is every reason to believe no steps will be taken by this country pending the outcome of the plans being laid by leading Mexicans to bring about peace.

The fact that some of the mediators interested in adjusting the differences between the followers of Huerta and Carranza were arrested last night, encouraging officials in touch with Mexican affairs to believe that their efforts may bring about the resignation of President Huerta.

While the Mexicans who are taking an active part in the plans decline to permit the use of their names at this time, they have proceeded to the point of informing Secretary Bryan what they have in mind. No developments are expected for at least a fortnight, during which the Administration here will keep in close touch with the negotiations.

TRAIN BANDITS KILL MAN IN NIGHT HOLDUP FIGHT.

Gang Plunders Cars on Lake Shore Road and Draws Pistols in Clash With Railway Men.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 29.—A Lake Shore freight train passing through Pine, Ind., last night, was held up by bandits and cars filled with valuable merchandise were broken into and robbed. During a fight between the robbers and trainmen J. S. Roy, a brakeman, was wounded so badly that he died later in a Chicago hospital.

Three men were arrested at Indiana Harbor today by railroad detectives, who declare they have connected them with the crime. They gave their names as George Gray and George Murray, both of New York, and Joe Goldstein of Chicago.

WOMEN POLICE FOR CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Women police for Chicago were assured last night when the Council passed an ordinance creating places for them on the force. Mayor Harrison will at once name ten patrolwomen for duty at the beach, dance halls and other places where it is believed they will be more efficient than men.

Office for New Jersey Man. WASHINGTON, July 29.—President Wilson today nominated Bernard M. Gannon Collector of Internal Revenue for the Fifth District of New Jersey.

RECEIVER TELLS INSIDE STORY OF MUSICA FRAUDS

Report Filed To-Day Shows They Had Purchased Steamer to Aid Flight.

Intimate details of how the Musica, father and sons, carried on the wholesale swindles in their business of importing human hair and cheese, for which they were arrested in New Orleans several months ago when they were in flight to Central America, and of how they bought a vessel upon which they were to make their escape, are revealed by the report of Ezra P. Prentice receiver in bankruptcy over the Musica interests, which was filed today in the Federal District Court.

The report states that for at least eight months prior to the institution of bankruptcy proceedings against the firm of A. Musica & Son frauds had been perpetrated by the Musica and their agents in New York and in London, Naples and Paris. This was largely through the negotiations of fraudulent drafts, drawn for the most part against cases of "hair," whose contents were either worthless or of only nominal value. Documentary bills were drawn upon correspondents abroad who had arranged with foreign banks to honor drafts.

To complete the frauds, false cables were sent to the foreign agents of the Musica which purported to be from banks drawn upon in this country and which authorized the negotiation of the drafts. There were $600,000 of these fraudulent drafts outstanding when the crash came for the Musica.

By reporting that he had secured legal prohibition against the removal from New Bedford, Mass., of the tramp steamer Evelyn receiver Prentice shows that the Musica had their under purchase, through a dummy, in order that registration under the flag of Uruguay might be had. The sum of $17,000 had already been advanced by Philip Musica for the purchase of the vessel, and repairs to the extent of $4,000 had been ordered when the Musica fled.

Chief Wallace of the License Bureau said today that the worst that can happen is delay; that lawyers drew the new ordinance, and that the law is indisputably supports the right of the city to take possession of the streets from curb to curb and building line to curb.

On behalf of the Mayor, his legal advisor, Assistant Corporation Counsel William Beers Crowell, today accepted service of copies of the injunctions granted by Supreme Court Justice Donnelly and which were sued out by the hotel and taxiway interests.

The Mayor directed that the papers be forwarded to Corporation Counsel Watson. The latter will again confer with the Mayor tomorrow.

HOUDINI ARRIVES HERE; HIS DOUBLE IS IN JAIL

Man Made Up to Personate Him as He Came to See Dying Mother.

Houdini, who performs with handcuffs and chains in vaudeville theatres, arrived here today on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie. He said he had been called from Stockholm, Sweden, by news of the illness of his mother, who died in this city yesterday.

The Swedish law warrants the imprisonment of one who breaks the terms of a contract, he said, and one of his men, who impersonated him while he got out of the country, is now in jail in Stockholm under the name of Houdini.

Shots Sister for Burglar. ELBERTON, Ga., July 29.—Believing he was firing upon a burglar, Mark Guest emptied a revolver at his seventeen-year-old sister here early today.

Mortally wounded, the girl staggered toward him exclaiming that a bolt of lightning had struck her. She died before medical aid could be summoned.

GAYNOR DIRECTS FIGHT AGAINST TAXICAB MONOPOLY

The $600,000 perquisite—the digging being represented in increased charges.

The Mayor says the hotel people have no legal right to collect this money for the privilege of usurping the streets which belong to the public, and the companies have neither the right to pay that sum nor to monopolize the street space for their cabs. That is the point at issue in the present fight.

NO MORE RICH THERE THAN IN CITY PARKS.

Mayor Gaynor said today that the law is plain and explicit—that the streets in front of hotels, as well as others, belong to the people, and that no exclusive use of those streets can endure without the sanction of the people. He long ago examined the law on the subject. In his letter appointing the taxicab commission he stated plainly that the roadway space claimed by the hotel people is public space and that the hotel people had no more right to grant a monopoly of it than they had to grant similar privileges in a city park.

It is not unlikely that as a result of his conference with the Corporation Counsel the Mayor will advise that the courts be asked to dissolve the injunction at once, in view of the fact that the operation of the new ordinance must be put into effect by midnight of July 31. It is likely, too, that Justice Donnelly, who granted the injunction, will be asked to amend by compelling the petitioners to argue their side before Friday so a decision may be reached in time to permit the enforcement of the new law.

Chief Wallace of the License Bureau said today that the worst that can happen is delay; that lawyers drew the new ordinance, and that the law is indisputably supports the right of the city to take possession of the streets from curb to curb and building line to curb.

On behalf of the Mayor, his legal advisor, Assistant Corporation Counsel William Beers Crowell, today accepted service of copies of the injunctions granted by Supreme Court Justice Donnelly and which were sued out by the hotel and taxiway interests.

DULFER AGAIN ON STAND.

Captain's Son in Second Trial Denies Girl's Charge.

Arthur Dulfer, the young son of Police Captain John Dulfer, today took the stand in his own defense in the second trial on an indictment for robbery and grand larceny before County Judge Niemann in the Kings County Court, Brooklyn. The young man is accused of running off with a pocket book containing $50 belonging to Agnes Anderson, a servant girl whom Dulfer and two companions met in Prospect Park June 26.

Dulfer entered a denial of the charge. The testimony for and against him was similar to that given in the trial last week, when the jury disagreed.

GIRL WITH 30 CENTS RUNS AWAY TO FIND AUNT IN WASHINGTON

Julia Phillips Doesn't Like the Home in Bronx Where Father Placed Her.

A little girl about thirteen years old, with two braids hanging down over her gingham dress, called at the parish house of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy in Marion avenue, in Bronx, today and asked Father Breslin to give her money to take her back to her aunt's home in Washington, D. C. She said she had run away from some girls' home in the Bronx, the name and exact location of which she did not know, and wanted very much indeed to go to her aunt's home.

"My name is Julia Phillips," she told the priest, "and I live with my aunt, Mrs. Kate Galey, at No. 112 Twenty-third street, N. W., in Washington. My mother's dead and my father is a waiter for a wealthy man in Washington. I don't know where I did not like it there because they made me wash and iron and didn't teach me anything so I ran away today with only thirty cents, with which I bought dinner."

Father Breslin took the little runaway to the Tremont avenue station, and after questioning Julia there the police sent her to the Children's Society rooms. They will write to the girl's aunt and tell her Julia wants to go back to Washington.

EXPECTS TO FLY TO EUROPE.

But Aviator Rosillo's Plans Are Not Yet Worked Out.

Domino Rosillo, the aviator, who recently flew from Key West to Havana, arrived here today on the Ward liner Havana. He is on his way to the international aviation tournament at Rheims and has sent his fifty-horse power Moraine monoplane ahead of him. He is accompanied by his physician, Dr. Genovese Canal.

Senator Rosillo admitted that there was truth in the report that he intended to make a transatlantic air trip before long, but he refused to discuss any details of his plans. He said that they were not sufficiently worked out to be talked about.

OSCAR UNDERWOOD ASSAILS MULHALL; CALLS HIM LIAR

"Never Saw Him Before," Democratic Leader Tells the Senate Lobby Hunters.

WITNESS HITS BACK.

Says He Will Stand Well Before Country When Inquiry Ends.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Oscar W. Underwood, majority leader of the House, today denounced Martin M. Mulhall, former lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, as a "liar and blackmailer."

Mr. Underwood appeared before the Senate lobby committee to deny that Mulhall had ever talked to him about legislation before Congress.

"I never saw him before in my life," he said, after one look at Mulhall. "I think," said the majority leader, "that it is in the interest of the public that a man who has taken liberties with public men, as this man has, should be contradicted. I regard a man of this kind as a blackmailer. That man has never been in the Ways and Means Committee room since I have been chairman."

Mr. Underwood appeared unexpectedly and made a brief statement before he was sworn. He denounced as false Mulhall's statement that an employee of the Ways and Means Committee had been in his employ. According to Mulhall's earlier testimony, that man was paid $20 a month.

A QUESTION ABOUT TERM "BLACKMAILER."

"You made a statement that this man was a blackmailer; that means he used threats to extort money," said Senator Reed.

"I think he was trying to get 'noney out of his own people,'" returned Mr. Underwood.

Chairman Underwood read Mulhall's letter about the alleged interview in which Mulhall wrote that Underwood had told him that he could not do otherwise than appoint William B. Wilson, now Secretary of Labor, Chairman of the House Labor Committee, because there was no other candidate before the Ways and Means Committee.

"That whole statement is a lie out of whole cloth—not a word of truth in it," declared Mr. Underwood.

Mulhall reiterated he had talked with Underwood briefly in the corridor and had written to his employers "about conditions just as I found them in Washington at that time."

"I have no desire to contradict Mr. Underwood," he said, "but I am convinced that after he has heard my other witnesses and this examination has been ended he will take back part of what he has said. I will stand as clean before the country as he will."

UNDERWOOD TAKES A PARTING SHOT AT MULHALL.

"Oh, I have no question about how we will stand relatively before the public," replied Underwood with a laugh and left the committee room.

Counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor prepared today to train their guns on Mulhall in an effort to break down the damaging testimony contained in the 5,000 letters which the committee has been reading during the last three weeks.

It became apparent when the committee convened that the cross-examination would not be reached before late in the afternoon. Robert McCarter, counsel for the N. A. M., early announced a series of questions which the committee examined. Many of the questions dealt with items in Mulhall's expense account, which the N. A. M. claims is "padding."

In an official statement, it was declared that Mulhall had received about $18,000 for salary over the period of ten years that he was connected with the association. His expense accounts show more than $200,000 for the same period.

There still remained about 500 letters to be read today, but the majority of them were inconsequential documents which the committee determined to pass over.

Mulhall told the committee that at one time he suggested an investigation of his activities as a lobbyist to former Chairman Wilson of the labor committee, Speaker Clark and a Republican Leader Blann, and that all turned down his proposal.

CHARGES AGAINST PATENT MEDICINES.

Most of the charges against patent medicines as a class have no foundation in fact and are manifestly unfair and unjust.

There are a large number of standard remedies like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used in thousands of American homes which have saved hundreds of dollars to families who could not afford to consult a physician, and they have answered the purpose equally as well.

BEST STAGE "TRAMP" ENJOINED BY COURT

"Billy" Arlington Restrained From Deserting the Ranks of Jacob & Jermon.

On the application of Leon Laski, counsel for Jacob & Jermon, producers of burlesque shows, Supreme Court Justice Guy today granted an injunction restraining William ("Billy") Arlington, a well known comedian, from playing under any other management than that of the plaintiffs until a suit brought by the plaintiffs against the actor for breach of contract can be tried next October.

On May 1912, according to the petition, the plaintiffs and the defendant entered into a contract for a theatrical term of seven years.

Arlington was playing in "The Golden Crook," portraying the role of a tramp, and when the season closed in May last the plaintiffs learned that Arlington was going to the Hippodrome, London, under a three-year contract. The petition stated that the defendant's services are special and unique, "the best tramp comedian in the business," and "the only person who can play the part that he portrays in 'The Golden Crook.'"

CAR DROPS INTO DITCH; PASSENGERS INJURED

Rails Spread as Trolley on 110th Street Passes Excavation for Subway Station.

Spread rails on the One Hundred and Tenth street trolley line at a point where excavating is being done for the One Hundred and Tenth street station of the Lexington avenue subway threw an eastbound car off the tracks early today and toppled it into the shallow excavation. The top of the fallen car rested on the pavement and the trucks clung to the side of the three-foot cut, while the half-dozen passengers aboard were thrown into a heap. Two women were among the luckless passengers.

Policeman Gorman of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station hurried to the scene of the accident and, breaking away the remaining thorns of glass from a window with his club, he climbed in and assisted the two women to scramble through to the street. The men followed.

Though one of the women, Mrs. Sallie Heinemann of No. 208 West One Hundred and Nineteenth street, had one knee slightly injured, she refused to go to a hospital and was taken to her home in a cab. Traffic was tied up for more than an hour.

UNTAMED MOTOR TRUCK OBLITERATES A LION

Crashes Into Automobile, Then Smashes Iron Railing Surrounding King of Beasts.

A quiet, old lion that has long been a familiar figure to the residents of Madison avenue in the vicinity of Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth streets was instantly obliterated today by a wild motor truck in front of the store of the Florentine Art Company, his owners, at No. 250 Madison avenue.

The wild and untamed truck, belonging to Sita & Co., poultry dealers at No. 414 West Fourteenth street, and driven by Charles W. Crawford of the Hotel McAlpin, breaking the rear axle and wrenching off one wheel.

The domesticated lion gazed at the scene unmoved and did not even show trepidation when the unmanageable auto truck veered from the wreck of the Crawford auto and came his way. Like a stray, six feet of iron railing, in front of the art store went down and then the lion got his.

The Florentine Art Company manager wrathfully declared the faithful old lion was worth $500, to say nothing of the railing destroyed.

The lion was a stone one. It may be stated parenthetically and for police record.

60 MORE CONVICTS IN REVOLT TAKEN FROM SING SING

Last of Mutineers Removed to Auburn, Except Ninety Kept Close Locked.

The knockout blow to the Sing Sing prison revolt was delivered by Warden Clancy today when he sent sixty convicts to Auburn Prison, reducing the number of inmates to about 1,000, and ridding the institution of all but a few of the most turbulent mutineers. Of the prisoners who had been locked in their cells since last Thursday, all but ninety were released today on their promise to be good and go to work.

Nine men are locked in the dark cells in solitary confinement. This mode of punishment was abolished some time ago, but was revived by Warden Clancy because of the necessity of inflicting severe punishment on the ringleaders of the revolt last week. The Warden has the approval of Gov. Sulzer and Supt. of Prisons Riley in his revival of the dark cell form of punishment, which is drastic, but invariably effective.
